2. Sandra Stamp ’75, Associate Librarian/Collection Management Librarian, Albright College. A B. Spanish, Albright College; M. S., Library science, Drexel University. Years at Albright: 40. Best thing about working in the library? My colleagues and their team spirit. Unforgettable Albright moment: Being the first winner of the Edward R. Gilbert Award. I was really moved by that. Favorite book: Hard to say—maybe To Kill a Mockingbird. If you could learn to do anything, I would love to knit. Hobbies: Gardening, cross stitch, watching sports (pro football, baseball and college basketball). If you were a tree: With my last name, how could I not be like an oak?

3. Tam Do ’00, Library Computer/Technical Support Specialist, B.S., computer science/business administration, Albright College. Years at Albright: 14. Most fulfilling part of your job? When I can enhance or add new online services for the library. Favorite book: The Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss. If you could learn to do anything: Be fluent in many languages. Hobbies: My vegetable and fruit garden, computer games, writing computer program code, designing my personal website. If you were a tree: I’ve never liked being a tree. If you were a tree: A space ship that will take you to the far past and the far future, a teacher that knows more than any human being, a friend that will amuse you and console you—and most of all, a gateway to a better and happier and more useful life.” One must ask, though, who supplies the gas for the spaceship travel? Who opens the gates to that better, happier and more useful life? Librarians do! While the digital age has changed much about the way information is generated, gathered and disseminated, librarians remain our most important search engines. Who are the librarians in the F. Wilbur Gingrich Library? Meet the good people I work with. Favorite book: To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee. If you could learn to do anything: To Kill a Mockingbird. If you were a tree: I would be more than just entertaining. If you could learn to do anything: Train and handle a pet therapy dog. Hobbies: Reading, volunteer work, prior to health issues. If you were a tree: The tree of knowledge—a great place for a library to be connected.
